Forecast For Grampian
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 13 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Patchy rain north and west, brighter south and east. Mild.

Today:
A mostly cloudy start with patchy mainly light rain around, the rain becoming increasingly confined to western and northern Aberdeenshire. However it will become brighter, especially across the south and east, with some sunny spells developing. Occasionally fresh westerly winds. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
Some clear spells across eastern and southern Aberdeenshire but generally rather cloudy with a little rain at times. Breezy, with occasionally strong southwesterly winds in coastal parts. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Thursday:
Sunny spells at first in south and east but cloud and outbreaks of rain spread southeast through the morning. Becoming brighter but cooler later in day as winds turn northerly. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Mainly dry with sunny spells Friday and Saturday morning with early frosts. More unsettled, but milder again, through the rest of the weekend with outbreaks of rain.
